Intensive Language Courses of German as a Foreign Language

- for foreign students interested in / applying for studies in Germany, who need to prepare for placement tests (Einstufungstest), entrance or language exams at German universities, practical/technical universities (Fachhochschule), and Studienkollegs.
- for all persons interested in acquiring a very good command of the German language at a level exceeding Grundstufe (basic level), for professional qualification or further education.

In our courses, we teach the presently used standard variety of German in a very diverse, varied, and also entertaining kind of way. Apart from basic linguistic means such as grammar and vocabulary, we also train you equally in: oral and written reception (HEARING and READING) as well as in oral and written text productions (SPEAKING and WRITING).

All of our courses at Forum DaF/DaZ are textbook-based, but you will also greatly benefit from our diverse and very up-to-date additional material and media that we approach the German language with: exercise sheets, authentic texts (e.g. excerpts from newspapers or literature), games, realistic dialogues, music, and many more.

Movie nights, country- and culture-specific activities as well as excursions help you get to know the German language, the country and its people in very effective and fun ways, and these activities are a welcome change to the more traditional ways of studying and interacting practiced in class.

Our semester-based courses amount to 260-280 teaching units per term:

- Winter term commences the middle/end of October and ends the end of March. A Christmas break from mid-December to mid-January is included.
- Summer term commences the middle/end of April and ends the end of September. A summer break from mid-July to mid-August is included.

Our present course range comprises of 4 levels:

Basic Level II (Grundstufe II)	(A 2 GeR)	= GS II 1 + 2
Intermediate I (Mittelstufe I)	(B 1 GeR)	= MS 1 + 2
Intermediate II (Mittelstufe II)	(B 2 GeR)	= MS 3 + 4
Top Level/DSH preparation (Oberstufe/DSH-Vorbereitung)	(C 1 GeR)	= OS 1 + 2

Presently valid tuition fees and course dates can be found on our internet-site: Termine und Preise aktuell.

- Unfortunately we presently do not offer courses for Complete Beginners (GS I).
- For accessing Basic Level II (Grundstufe II), you need to have completed a basic level course of German, A 1 GeR, first (this equals a minimum of about 150-200 teaching units).
- The Intermediate Levels I and II (Mittelstufe) specifically prepare the participants for the language placement tests (Intermediate-/Top Level) at universities and for the „German“ section of the entrance exams of German Studienkollegs.
- Top Level Courses (Oberstufe) help you to acquire form and structure of scientific communication and prepare you for all known language exams concerning your ability to study at a German university (DSH, TestDaF).
